

A Personal Note

By Anna Von Reitz

I realized today that for the third year in a row, I haven't even had time to make a batch of homemade jam for my family. It's such a simple thing. Indeed, I always took it for granted. Of course, you "put by" tomatoes in season and picked your strawberries for syrup and jam and red raspberries, too... apple butter and plum butter and pickles, too. The familiar smells and tastes and the jars lined up on the pantry shelves in the fall. My pantry shelves are bare, folks. It's been this way for three years.

I've had no life of my own at all. It's all been given to you and for you, to dig this country and its people out of the morass of ignorance and gullibility and apathy into which so many have fallen----and which poses such a clear and present danger now.

My husband and I don't regret it. We'd do it all again. But sometimes I just sit down and cry and rage.

We can't do it alone. We have leveraged and fought and taught and done what needed to be done, and somehow, with help from above and friends near and far, it has all been accomplished thus far. Each week, our voices reach an estimated 55 million people, and from there, like a web, the news trickles out. We have to do more and we have to do it faster. Somehow.

And most urgently, the word has to be passed--- don't fall for the "M1 Bonds" or any other offer like it. Your organic states and your ESTATES have been redeemed and reclaimed. Now make sure that we don't get fooled again--- because that is what the rats are trying to do.

They are coming in here with more undisclosed "offers" and trying to get innocent people to sign away their lives and their rights and their property for a song. Warn everyone. Don't sign anything for any reason that you don't completely understand--- and I mean, completely, looking up every word in a legal dictionary, so that you catch every possible meaning.

When you sign things from now on, do it with a "by-line" as if you were the author of a book. Always write it in front of your name, just like in a newspaper article--- by: Joseph Alan Schmoe.

Copyright everything you sign, even if it is a laundry ticket.

Guard yourselves and your property as well as you can. Learn. Think. Listen. Share. Put aside some extra food and toilet paper and other things people need, tea and coffee, flour, and yes, jam.

We've been framed. Set up to take the fall for the UNITED STATES, INC. and the USA, Inc. The rest of the world has been mistreated by these same cretins who have stolen us blind and commandeered our government. Many mistakenly blame us.

There are those who have their blinders on, those in a state of denial. They don't want to believe it is as bad as it is, and they don't want to admit why. At bottom, they are afraid. I don't blame them. By all means, do everything you can to protect yourselves and your families, and if you can, help us do the work by passing on the information and by sending donations when you can.
